

SLOVENIAN DECLARATION

To give expression to the natural aspiration of the people of Slovenia to a free national future the following basic requirements for the attainment of this end are hereby declared:

A united Republic of Slovenia, free from any outside domination and internal autocracy.

A cantonal union of the Republic of Slovenia with the Free Territory of Trieste, to put an end to divisions of, and to quarrels for this indivisible north-eastern Adriatic area, and thus to enable the port of Trieste and its natural hinterland — Slovenia to resume their common economic function in central-eastern Europe.

An autonomous membership of this Republic in a Federated Europe as it shall mutually be agreed upon to serve the freedom and wellbeing of its people and their common security against Communism and any totalitarian or imperialistic revival.
